

Faculty & Staff:

Faculty members who retire may keep their UMB email accounts for life.

Staff members who retire and wish to continue using the university email system must formally request that their email accounts be kept active. Please send an email to helpdesk@umb.edu requesting that you wish to continue using the university email system.

Email accounts of faculty or staff who resign from the University or are terminated will be deleted on the last day of employment.